

Nonprofits Online!

A free workshop for staff members and active volunteers at western North Carolina nonprofit organizations. Internet users of all abilities will learn online techniques to:

- Find Resources for Nonprofit Organizations
- Buy Cheap, Brand-Name Software
- View Guidelines for Foundations—
Even When They Have No Websites!
- Get Instant Nonprofit Advice in a Crisis
- Locate Financial Support
- Document Program Need
- Request Public Information
- Find Government Funding
- Get Free Translations
- Utilize Census Data

and More!

Presented by

FIRE

Fund for Investigative Reporting and Editing

Waynesville, NC

Friday, March 28, 2003

1:00 - 5:00 pm

Regional High Technology Center

112 Industrial Park Drive

(a branch of Haywood Community College, not on main campus)

To Register:

Please e-mail your name, organization, title and phone number to Mark Goldstein at mark@ncpress.net, or call 828-259-9179. More information: <http://www.ncpress.net/seminars.html>

Nonprofits Online is made possible by support from the Community Foundation of Western North Carolina and the New Leaf Fund.

You don't have to be a computer whiz to benefit from this workshop. You just need to know how to use a mouse, keyboard and Internet browser (like Netscape or Internet Explorer)—and have a desire to learn! All workshops will be led by Internet research expert Evan Mahaney and FIRE Executive Director Mark Goldstein.

WNC

???

$

Board

0100110

